5.2 Capture Overtime

Follow the menu below to capture Overtime:

In this section, overtime transactions per employee can be captured and modified. The rate for overtime (Overtime @1.5 or Overtime @2.0), overtime date and hours must be completed.

Overtime pay is the amount of overtime paid to each employee in a pay period.

Normal Overtime pay is calculated: Hourly pay rate x 1.5 x overtime hours worked as per the Method of Calculation formula that was captured on the Salary Transaction. As soon as overtime is captured it must be submitted to the manager for approval.

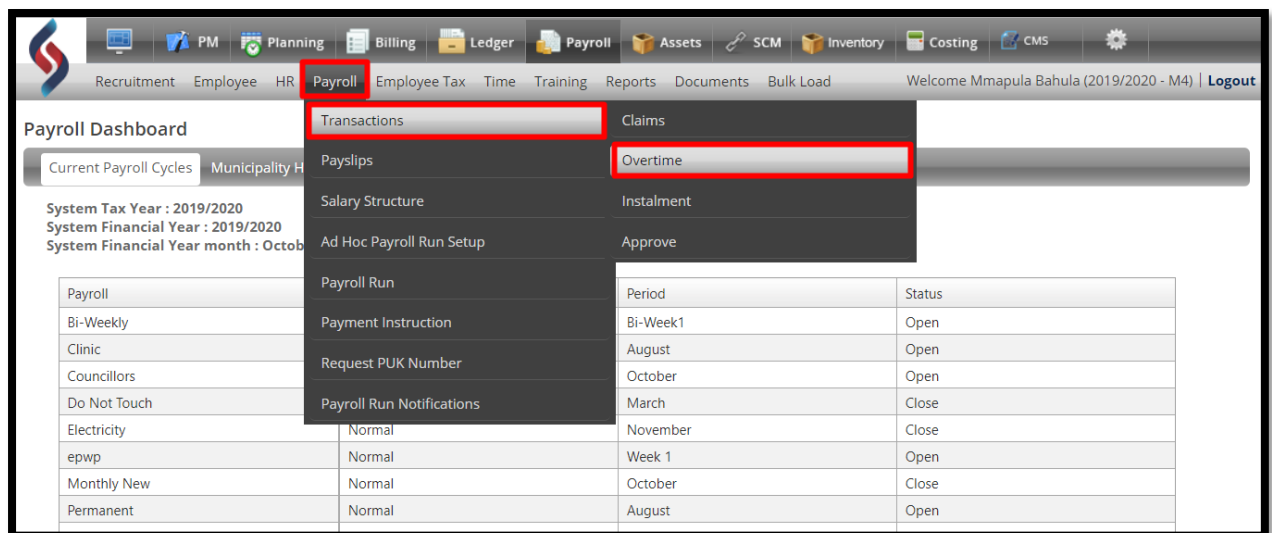

When the Submit button is clicked the system update the status of the transaction to Await Approval, then the approver need to approve the transaction to display on the Pay slip view.

Validation of Trial Run

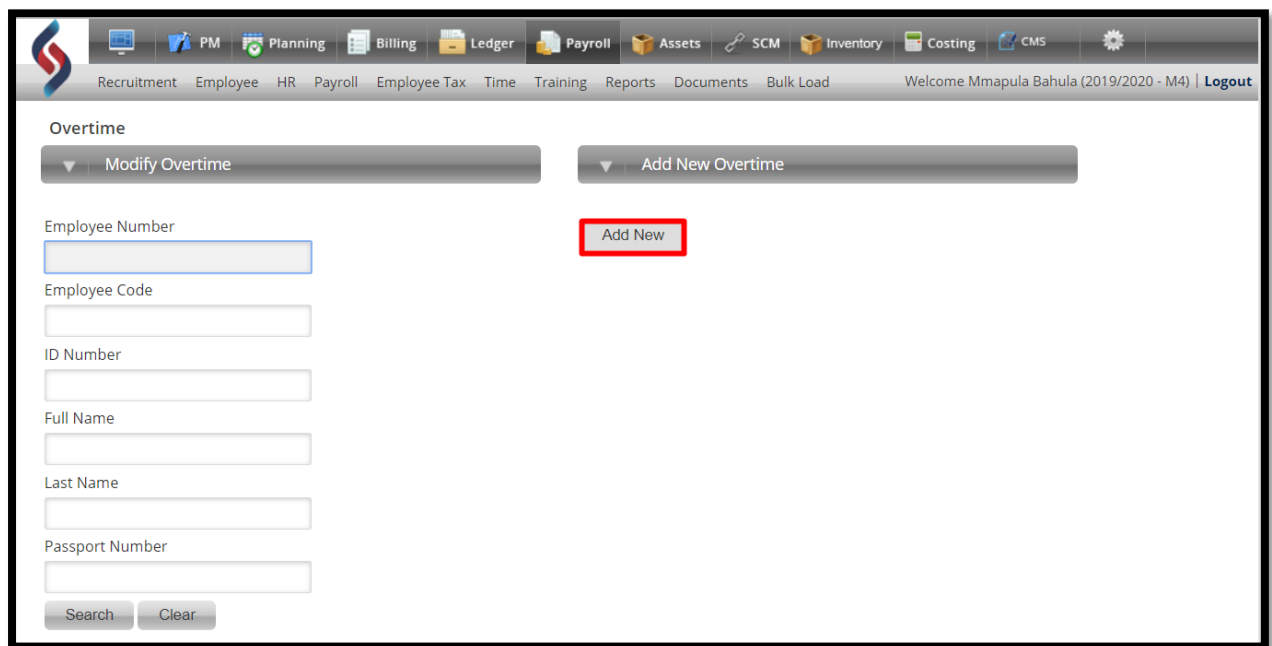

If an employee has unapproved overtime transactions the trial run for the cycle will fail. All captured overtime transactions must be approved for the Trial and Final run to succeed (This validation will also cause a pop-up message on the Employee Details page and the Pay slip View page as these two pages trigger a Trial run).

Validation on the overtime transaction date-transactions older than two months will be rejected by the system and printed on the Transaction Date Exception report that is generated by the system during the trial run. The above two validations are also applicable to Claim transactions

Click “Payroll” in the primary navigation bar.

Select “Transactions” in the secondary navigation bar, select “Overtime” and the overtime screen will populate.

8. CONFIGURATION SETTINGS FOR MANAGING OVERTIME

For more Detailed Information – refer to HR/Payroll Configuration Manual

	Access	System Administrator
---	--------	----------------------

8.1 Salary Transactions Settings

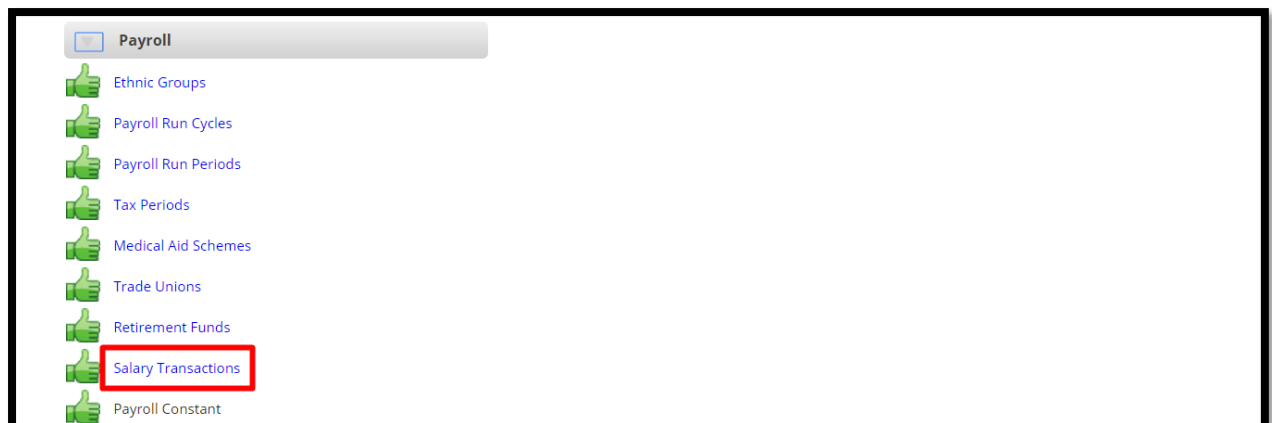

This section is extremely important as all earnings, company contributions, deductions and Fringe benefits must have a Salary Transaction.

Different Method of calculation can be setup for on one Salary transaction per Condition of Service, Employee Type and Employee subtype. Overtime will also have a method of calculation.

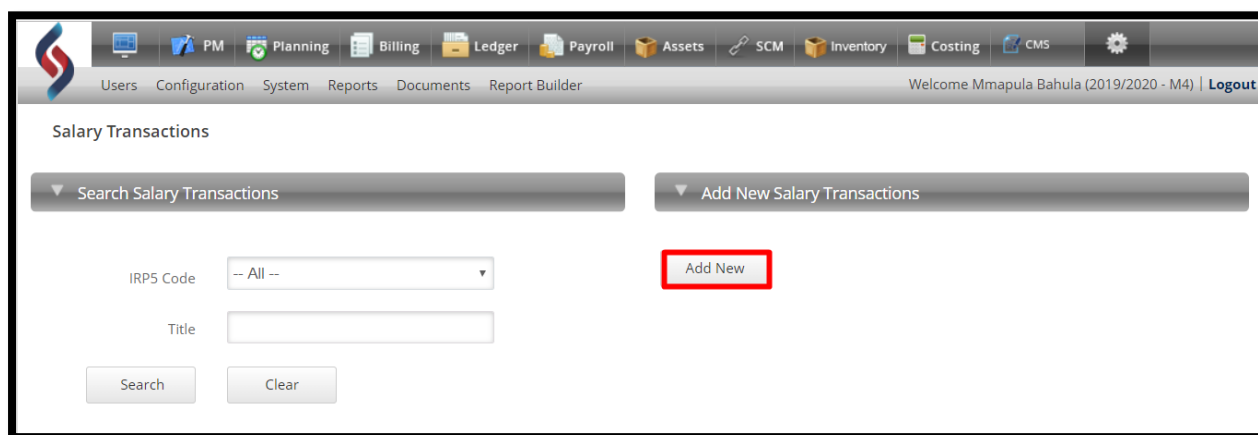

The user must link the salary transaction to the applicable IRP5 Code to ensure PAYE calculates correctly.

Calculation method means the system will do calculations based on the Method of Calculation. The Method of Calculation tab will only be available for Salary Transactions marked as System Calculate.

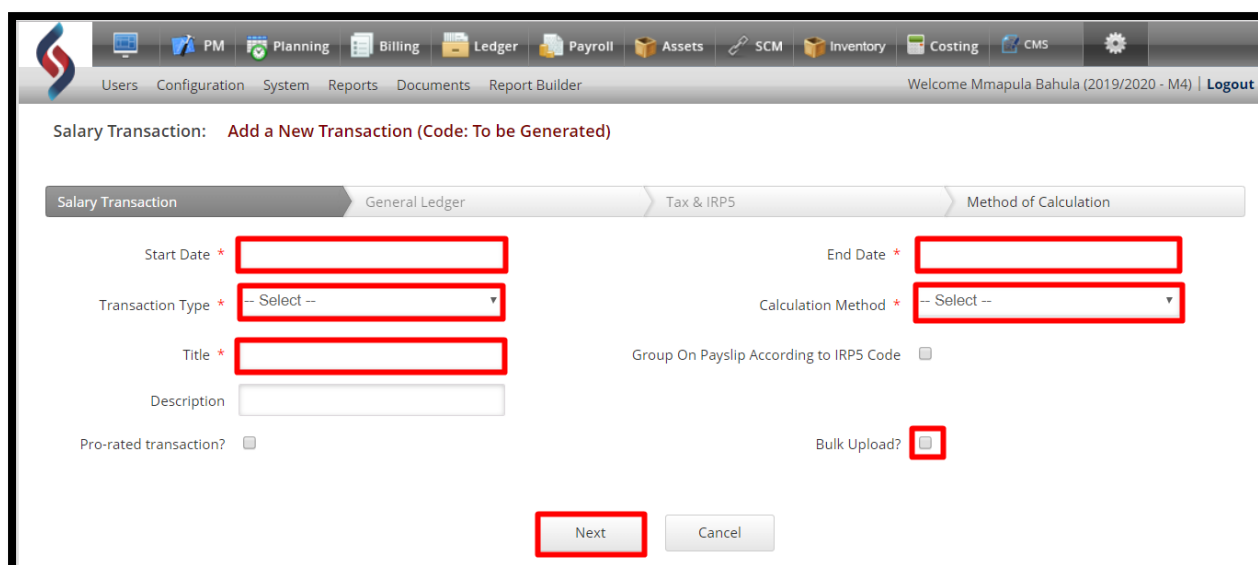

Salary transaction setup is important, because the formula for overtime needs to be setup correctly so that employees can be able to capture overtime. The formula used for overtime will populate.
